

Back home after a wonderful stay at Broneirion with my friends from the 2nd Bath Trefoil. We visited some lovely National Trust properties, the last being at Berrington Hall near Leominster, where Jenny and Marilyn had the opportunity to dress up in Georgian period dress—and looked rather fetching I thought!

Marilyn

