

THINKING DAY CELEBRATIONS

CLUTTON TREFOIL GUILD in Somerset North

A lovely breakfast, and an excellent way to start Thinking Day. Clutton Trefoil Guild met up at Meadgate Farm Café, Timsbury, to do some concentrated 'thinking' on February 22nd. Now that's a good idea we could adopt!!

...spent Thinking Day with a Guiding friend in New Zealand, but sent a Thinking Day message back to her fellow guild members in Somerset North.

Thinking of you all on 22nd Feb from Christchurch, New Zealand.

Here it is the 6th anniversary of the earthquake that happened on Thinking Day and there have been memorial services during the day - 185 people lost their lives.

I'm pictured here with Megan, who I met in 1995 when I first visited NZ, she was a Brownie Guider at that time and took me to visit an international camp for the day.

She experienced the 2011 earthquake and met us today and took us around the areas that were affected. For 2 years the city was closed to people and work is still ongoing to rebuild Christchurch. There is a vast swathe of land on the east side which was once home to many houses and now is vegetation. Roads are still under repair work and some houses are still going through repair work or have been completely rebuilt. Many people moved South to other towns to live.

The photo shows Christchurch Cathedral, decisions have still to be made on its future - it has been like this since the earthquake. HAPPY THINKING DAY EVERYONE!!
