

For circulation to all members

Highlights from Board of Trustees meeting September 2017

- Are you interested in Trefoil International travel? If so give your name to your Country/Region International adviser as we are making plans for future trips and partnerships with TOPAZ
- Annual Meeting 2018: We will be celebrating our 75 birthday at Birmingham Symphony Hall on Saturday June 16. We are designing a special badge for the event for those who attend that will be included in the ticket price (£6). The evening event will be a celebration with music. A mixed voice choir celebrating our history followed by Abbas Angels (an Abba tribute band) the evening event is open to all Trefoil and Girlguiding members. Cost £12.50.

Details of ticket application in December Magazine

- The new constitution is available on the website
- Our new Treasurer is Mrs. Heather Hern
- Work has started on updating the handbook that will be an online version. You will be able to print this out if you wish.
- Safe space. You will be receiving a Safe space leaflet from Girlguiding in your March magazine that supports our policy on safeguarding
- Updated information on how to apply & put an application together for Trefoil Guild awards will be available on the website
- We will be sending a £500 donation to the Girlguiding appeal for members affected by the recent hurricane. Details of appeal on Girlguiding website if you would like to donate
- There is a new leaflet outlining the Voyage Award and an updated small publicity leaflet. Both available from Trading.
- 75 Challenge: please do take part, enjoy and encourage all members of Girlguiding to participate.
- Trefoil has agreed to raise £30,000 for the Riding for Disabled Charity during 2018. All money raised should be sent to the Trefoil Office at CHQ when you will receive a certificate. More information about the event we are sponsoring in Chairman's letter in December magazine
- 75 birthday celebration events are on your C/R calendar on the website
- Annual Meeting 2019: June 8 at Southport